

18th Annual Winter Solstice Celebration

Saturday, Dec. 20, 2014

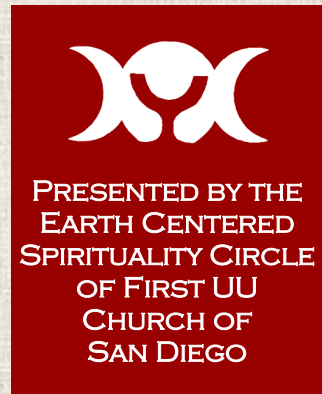

Through stories, music, dance, ritual & magick, we honor the ageless triumph of the human spirit on this sacred night. Come at 5:30 PM to experience the magic of twinkle lights and hot Wassail on the patio! Wear festive attire! Children welcome! The Ritual begins promptly at 6:30 PM.

This event sells out very fast. Please arrive NO LATER than 6pm. While we have a "scent free" seating section, due to the festive dressing of the meeting house there is a strong evergreen aroma throughout the sanctuary.

Donation Requested: Adults $12.00
Children 12 years old and younger: $5.00
No cost for "babes in arms."

Location: 4190 Front Street, SD CA 92103

Parking: For directions to the church, call (619) 298-9978 and press #3.
Parking is FREE for Solstice attendees. When the church lot is full, overflow parking is directed to UCSD’s multi-level parking structure, you will need a parking coupon from the church parking lot attendant. Remember, it takes a few minutes to walk to the Meeting House from the UCSD parking structure. Carpooling is encouraged. Public street parking is available, but limited.
Avoid a parking headache, plan to arrive EARLY!

The Event: The ritual is appropriate for all ages and all spiritual paths. Children are welcome. This is not a “show” but a sacred worship event which has elements of liturgical theater such as singing, dancing, storytelling, poetry, and drumming.

Dress: People are encouraged to wear festive Solstice attire! That means anything from capes and costumes to traditional holiday dress up wear.

The Feast: The Solstice Feast is not being offered this year

T-Shirts: This year very special Solstice T-Shirts will be available for purchase at $20.
