

WINTER SOLSTICE CELEBRATION

Celebrating Twenty Years
1995 to 2015

Saturday December 19, 2015

Through story-telling, music, belly dance, drumming, ritual & magick, we honor the ageless triumph of the human spirit on the longest night of the year. Family friendly. Childcare provided. Arrive at 5:15 PM for hot wassail and a magical forest filled with characters, rivers of twinkle lights, a bonfire and music. The suggested donation is $7 for children up to 12 years of age, $15 for 13 and older.

The Feast is Back!
Experience a private seated gourmet meal before the ritual. For a suggested donation of $40 per person, you get reserved seating, a three course gourmet served meal with wine, choice parking, and special entertainment. This is the only fundraiser we hold to support Winter Solstice.

SHIRTS

Help support the Winter Solstice production by purchasing a Wheel-of-the-Year T-shirt! Black, 100% cotton shirt lists the eight holy days on the front and on the back carries the words “merry meet, merry part, merry meet again.” $15 each.

Adult sizes; S—M—L—XL—2X

Grand Total _____

Winter Solstice is not a “show” but a sacred worship event which has elements of liturgical theater such as singing, dancing, storytelling, poetry, drumming, reflection, and prayer. Appropriate for all ages and spiritual paths. Children welcome and childcare provided for the very young ones. Festive Solstice attire encouraged! From flowing capes and garland crowns to Faery wings to traditional holiday garb.

Plan to arrive no later than 5:30pm to allow for a one-lane street parking back up. Seating is first come, first serve. The ritual begins promptly at 6:30 ends at 8:00 pm. There is no “intermission.”

Parking is free. When the church lot is full, overflow parking is directed to UCSD’s multi-level parking structure. You must pick up a parking coupon from the ACE parking attendant. It takes a few minutes to walk to the Meeting House from the UCSD parking structure. Carpooling is encouraged. Public street parking is available, but limited.

A limited number of Regular Admission tickets only are available online at:
